Churchtown Belton walk

3 MILES

START Belton Picnic area. Leave the M180 at Junction 2, following the A161 through Belton and on towards Epworth. The Picnic area is on the right just after the right hand bend.

THE WALK

1. Leave the car park, cross the main road toward Belton , walk up a slight slope to an A frame, Follow the path along the disused railway line through several A Frames, passing a housing estate and car park on the left until you meet Jeffrey Lane
2. Turn left onto Jeffrey Lane until you meet the main road (A161)cross road and turn right, After a few yards a farm lane is seen on the left , take this track and continue ahead (ignore a farm track and a footpath both going left , and ignore a wide track veering to the right
3. Follow the track around a left hand bend past houses and North croft kennels on the left. Continue ahead
4. At a farm (The White House)follow the stony track round to the left
5. Track then bears to the right heading South towards the buildings of Churchtown
6. Just before the buildings turn Right down a lane towards Goose Pitts Farm
7. Immediately before the entrance turn left following Cuppressus trees round the boundary and down to a road . this is Carrhouse Road
8. Turn Left walking carefully along the road to a bend . Cross the road and follow a signed footpath which initially follows field headlands and goes over a wooden bridge, eventually becomes a good wide track
9. As you approach some of the farm buildings on the left a junction of paths is seen ahead. Turn Left and return to car park
