

SCAWBY PARK WALK

2 MILES APPROX

START From M180 Junction 4 head towards the Scunthorpe, Broughton, Brigg roundabout on the A18. Follow the A18 towards Brigg. Take the first right signposted Scawby. As you enter the village turn left into Church Street. Park Lane immediately before The Blacksmith Forge is the start. Park considerately along Church Street. This walk can be extended by walking through village streets.

THE WALK

1. Walk down Park Lane and enter the parkland via a quaint turnstile and follow the path diagonally to the right.
2. Go through gate and walk ahead.
3. Go through 2nd gate and follow the obvious route into the field corner.
4. Leave the park by a similar quaint turnstile onto the roadside there is a footpath and we turn right here alongside the B1206 which goes to Hibaldstow.
5. Shortly after passing a road on the left handside marked Power Station (locals remember this as Brigg Sugar Beet Factory) we turn right at a road junction. This is Brigg Road and take us back into Scawby village and to our starting point.

TERRAIN The area is flat following a parkland path between points 1 and 4 and surfaced footpath/pavements alongside the roads. Stiles have been replaced by gates

TIME About 1 hr at a leisurely pace.
