

Wrawby: St.Helen's Well Walk

3 miles

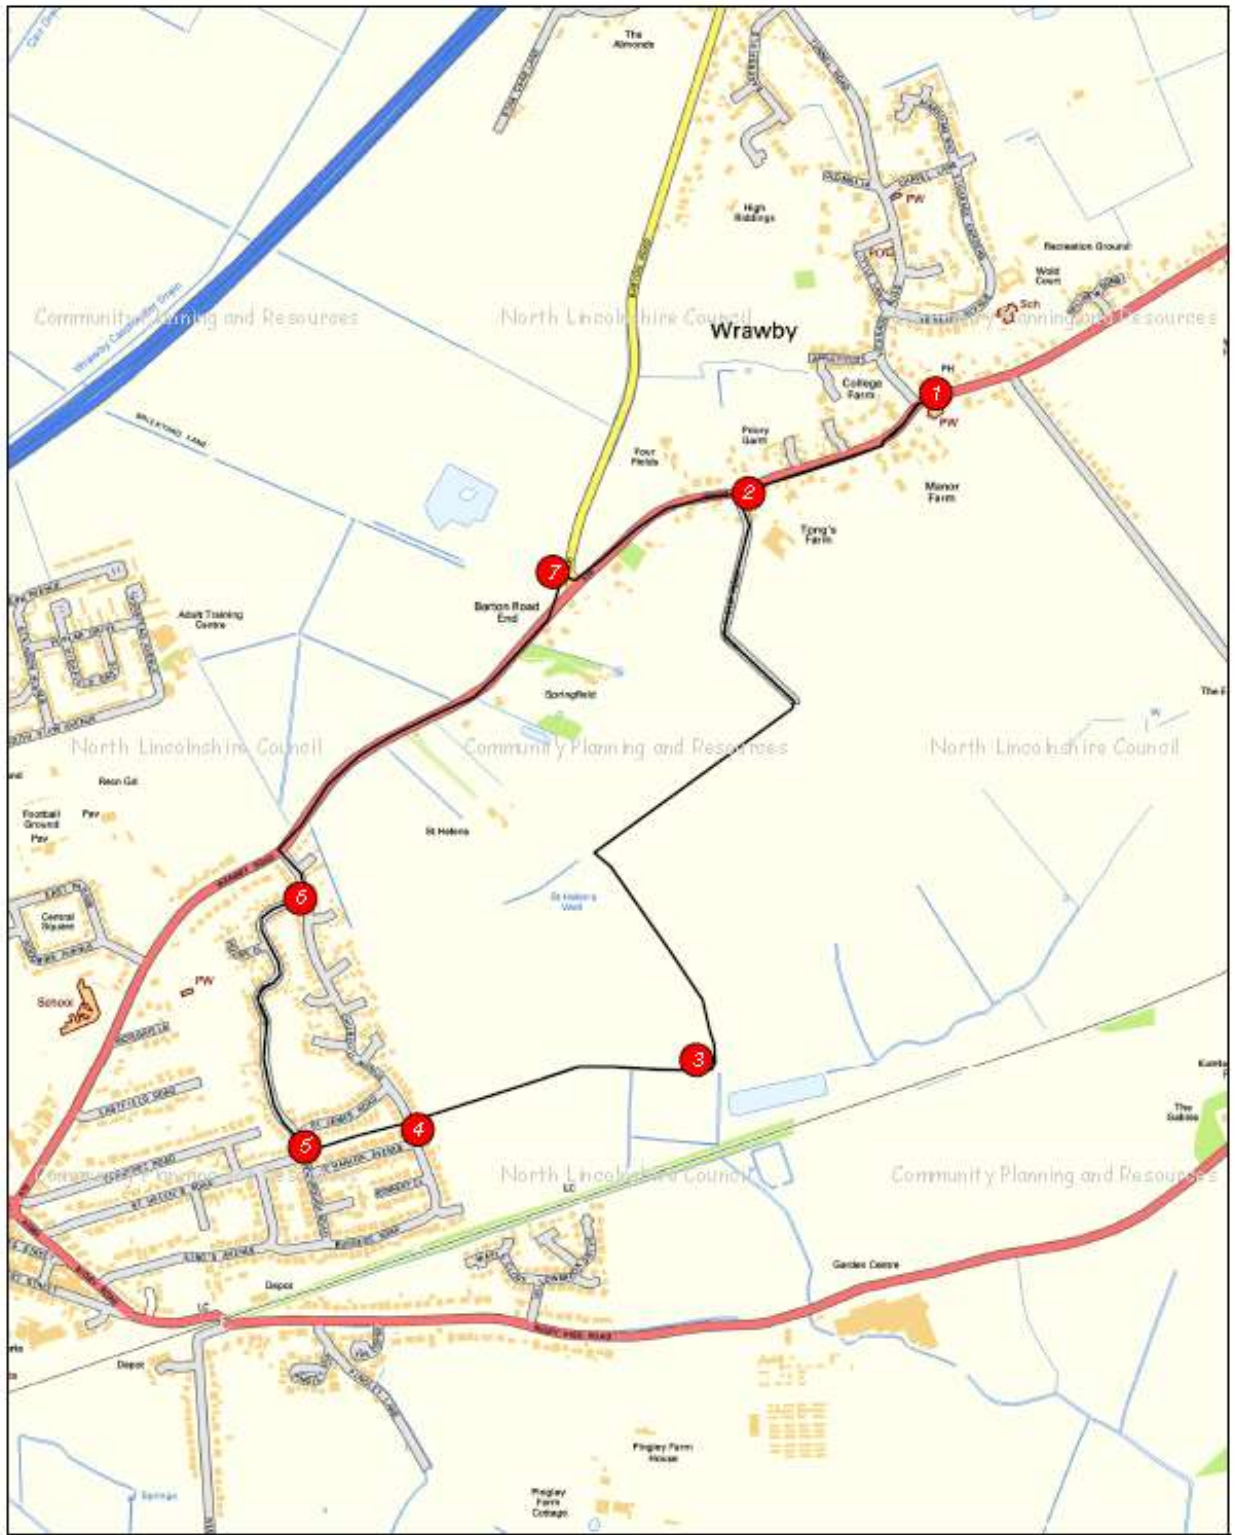

START: The Black Horse Inn, Wrawby. (This is now shut)

THE WALK:

1. Turn right, downhill along the A18, crossing at a suitable spot.
2. Turn left into Highfield Road, keeping Tong's Farm on your left, this road becomes a wide track, bending and leading steadily downhill with views southwest down to Brigg and St. Helen's Well.
3. At the bottom at a gate, turn right on a way marked dyke side path, cross a footbridge and continue with the dyke now on your right.
4. This path enters a housing estate, going into Churchill Avenue, cross this into a fence-enclosed pathway.
6. Where York Road meets with Churchill Avenue, turn left to the main Wrawby Road (A18). Cross using the right hand crossing and turn right into Wrawby.
7. Cross the B1206 Barton Road, continuing uphill, finally crossing Vicarage Road back to the start.

TERRAIN: The route leads gradually downhill, firstly on pavement, then on a wide farm track leading downhill to point 3. A dyke side grassy path leads slightly uphill into the Brigg Housing Estate. Pavements
